TURKISH SUIT AND JAZZ DRESS SHOWN

Today's shopping tour disclosed a novelty, the new Jazz dresses in net, in satin, in cloth—for "jazz" refers to embroidery. Illustrated is a Gidding model of navy twill with an apron effect of silk cord and wooden beads. Beside it is one of the most interesting of spring's tailored suits. It's Turkish. The skirt consists of two equal widths of material, tricotine, with a space left free at either side for the feet.

DISCOVERED! ONE "RAILWAY" UNCLE DIDN'T FIND

Leave it to the kiddies to run things themselves. Here's a "railway" that Uncle Sam hasn't a word to say about. It was made by a Cincinnati (Ohio) father, who immediately turned it over to his two little sons. It has pedals that produce the motive power, a whistle that blows with the aid of a tire pump, and an honest-to-goodness electric headlight that gets its juice from a storage battery.

PASSENGERS ARE LUCKY WHEN CAR TAKES A PLUNGE

FOND DU LAC, Wis.—A street car loaded with shop workers crashed through a bridge, plunging into the water. Passengers escaped through windows and while 17 were bruised nobody was killed. Above picture shows the car half submerged in the stream.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE AT CENTRAL JUNIOR HIGH, SATURDAY

The teachers of Weber county will meet in institute sessions on Saturday, April 3, at 10:30 a. m. in the Central Junior high school, according to Supt. B. A. Fowler.
Instead of the regular departmental meetings, the program is varied to consist of the following:
Violin solo by Joseph Felt, principal at West Warren.
Vocal solo by David Johnston of Taylor school.
Lecture, "Measuring Results in Arithmetic and Reading," by Professor H. A. Dixon of the Weber Normal college.
Brief instructions and the distribution of plans for the ensuing month will follow. A most profitable session is anticipated. The teachers will receive their monthly pay checks.
The new contracts to teachers have been issued and are being signed up by the teachers for next year. The prospects for a full corps of teachers in the county is very bright, the superintendent reports.

Sir Hamar Greenwood, the new secretary for Ireland, was born in Canada in 1870 and received his education in that country. He served in the war from 1914 to 1916 in the latter year becoming attached to the staff of Lord Derby, at that time the war minister.

Supreme Court Turns Down State Petition

SAN FRANCISCO, April 2.—The supreme court of California dismissed today a petition to have a referendum on the eighteenth amendment to the federal constitution submitted to the voters of the state. The petition alleged that the act of congress in specifying that the amendment should be ratified by the legislatures of three-fourths of the states prevented the state from prescribing a different ratifying power.

Cases Against Two Chinese are Continued

The case of the city against Sing Wong and C. H. Joe, booked on a charge of gambling and arrested on March 15, was again continued in city court this morning. Trial is set for April 7.

Theatres

PANTAGES.

There is a great display of knees in this week's Pantages show at the Orpheum theatre. There are several pretty sets of girls' knees, a sturdy set owned by a Scotch ventriloquist and four sets displayed by a Chinese male quartet. If a vote were taken in the audience as to which act furnished the best set of these useful and sometimes ornamental human appendages it seems certain that the majority would be cast in favor of the young women.

These young women are in Jessie Blair Stirling's seven Glasgow maids' act in which there are some fine songs, sprightly dancing and lively tunes by a pipe band. This act possesses a star bass drum beater in the person of one of the Glasgow maids.
The Chung Hwa Four was perhaps the most popular act of the opening show. These Oriental men are fine singers and splendid comedians as well. One of the four is a dandy performer on the steel guitar. With the assistance of Ervin Ford, the piccolo tinker in Al Erickson's orchestra, he plays "Stars and Stripes Forever" in a snappy manner.

The three Casting Mellos have a short act but one filled with thrills. The husky men have a right jolly time hurling a graceful young woman here and there through the air. She spins around in the air but always alights as safely as a cat.
The Great Howard entertains the audience with a clever ventriloquist act in which he sings some of his own compositions.
Fiske and Fallon serve out some songs, some chatter and the woman member of the team gives an exhibition of unusual vocal effort.
Dick Henry and Carrie Adelaide open the show with a snappy little dancing act in which Dick shows how it is possible to remove a pair of trousers in full view of the audience without giving offense.
